

Schaller & Weber 1654 2nd Avenue

For over seventy years, Schaller & Weber have been manufacturers, butchers, and purveyors of German imported goods. It is the last German butcher shop in the Yorkville neighborhood, and is still family owned.

Carl Schurz Park

140-142 East End Ave

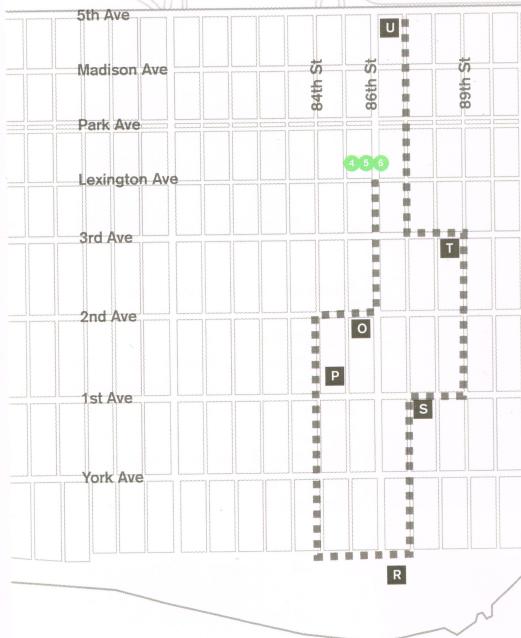

Home to the official residence of the Mayor of New York since 1942, Carl Schurz Park is named in honor of German-American general, statesman, and Secretary of the Interior, Carl Schurz.

Zion St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church

339 E 84th Street

This church building has been home to several German Evangelical Lutheran congregations since it was constructed in 1888. Today it offers a weekly service in German.

Glaser's Bake Shop

1670 1st Avenue

This Yorkville bakery has opened for business in 1902 and still remains in the family. Today, over one hundred years later, Glaser's Bake Shop is still baking traditional German strudel and black-and-white cookies.

Wankel's Hardware Store

1573 3rd Avenue

Wankel's Hardware Store is one of the few surviving family-owned and operated German businesses of Yorkville. In the late 19th century, the most popular item sold was a simple wooden bucket that laborers used to carry beer home from the area's German breweries.

Deutscher Liederkranz der Stadt New York

6 E 87th Street

The Deutscher Liederkranz der Stadt New York was founded in 1847 to preserve and promote German culture and music, but also became a strong supporter of the United States during times of war and national disaster.

UPPER EAST SIDE YORKVILLE

all photos © Adi Shniderman

except:
Hammacher Schlemmer (© Hammacher Schlemmer)
Beethoven Bust (© Pete Labozzi)